

EVENT PARTNERSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Sofitel Broadbeach
FRIDAY 8 MAY 2026

Institute of Management Consultants

Hosted by the Institute of Management Consultants (IMC), Australia's peak professional body for professional management consultants, the IMC Australia Asia Pacific Conference 2026 brings together a diverse community of consulting practitioners, senior executives, decision-makers, government representatives, academics, and industry partners for a full day of insights, discussion, and high-value networking.

Building on IMC's long-standing commitment to raising professional standards and supporting excellence in consulting, the 2026 conference provides a trusted platform to explore emerging trends, ethical practice, digital transformation, advisory methodologies, and the evolving role of consultants in shaping organisational performance.

The IMC Australia Asia Pacific Conference 2026 reaches audiences across the full consulting ecosystem – from independent practitioners and boutique firms to large consulting organisations, corporate leaders, and stakeholders who engage and rely on professional consulting expertise.

The Conference attracts:

- Management consultants
- Corporate leaders and executives
- Government agencies
- Industry regulators
- Technology & AI solution providers
- Strategy and change specialists
- Project and program managers
- Small and medium businesses
- Financial, legal, and risk advisors
- HR and people development consultants
- Universities and research bodies
- Training and professional education providers
- Not-for-profit organisations
- Industry partners and service providers

The IMC Australia Asia Pacific National Conference is the premier event for Australia's professional consulting community.

The Institute of Management Consultants invites your organisation to join as a key sponsor and supporter of the IMC Australia Asia Pacific Conference 2026.

Why take part?

Market Leadership: Align your brand with professional excellence and position your organisation as a leader within the consulting and advisory landscape. Demonstrate your commitment to supporting ethical, high-quality, and future-focused consulting practice.

Targeted Exposure: Gain visibility before, during, and after the event, reaching consultants, corporate leaders, and key decision-makers who influence organisational strategy across Australia.

Brand Visibility: Our integrated marketing campaign ensures your brand reaches a highly targeted audience within the consulting community, maximising recognition and engagement.

Profile Enhancement: Showcase your organisation's capabilities, services, or insights through tailored sponsor inclusions—such as branded content, digital presence, delegate materials, or program involvement—designed to highlight your value to consulting professionals.

Networking Opportunities: Connect with influential consultants, corporate leaders, government representatives, and academic partners. The conference offers an intimate, high-quality environment for relationship-building, idea exchange, and exploring partnership opportunities.

Thought Leadership: Strengthen your organisation's reputation by contributing to the program through sponsored content, facilitated discussions, or expert insights (aligned with IMC's program guidelines). Position your organisation as a trusted voice shaping the future of professional consulting.

Human Insight | Intelligent Tools | Real-World Impact

The Conference brings together management consultants and leaders from business, government, and the community to explore how human insight, ethics and contextual understanding combine with AI, data, and automation to deliver trusted, real-world impact. Across a focused one-day program, delegates will unpack real cases and practical approaches from large firms, independents, public sector partners, and international peers. The program showcases IMC's leadership in professional standards and its role in connecting Australian consulting with the wider Asia-Pacific region.

Exhibition

The conference includes a dedicated partner engagement space where sponsors can connect directly with delegates and showcase their services, insights, and expertise. This area supports meaningful conversations, knowledge exchange, and networking, complementing the conference program and enhancing delegate engagement.
